Division into course components:

1000 Material och Teknik 4: Rum och miljöer 5,0 hp. Only final examination is available.

1. Main course content:

The course aims to provide students with deepened knowledge about how together with materials, light, sound and colours form the atmosphere of a public space and impact the way the room is organised and furnished. The course focuses on public environments and how light, sound and colour function both indoors and outdoors. All components, including materials and materiality come together in the design work.

2. Intended learning outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

- demonstrate in-depth knowledge of how the different spatial properties of light, sound and colour generate different environments
- apply knowledge of light, sound and colour in the design and development of public indoor and outdoor spaces;
- develop methods for designing public environments, paying consideration to the interaction between the space, furniture, light, sound, colour and materials;
- compile and present their work and critically reflect upon their own project in a greater context;
- reflect upon their learning.

3. Entry requirements:

Basic eligibility. In order to start studies in year 2, in addition to the basic eligibility, a passing grade in courses corresponding to 45 credits from year 1 in the Bachelor's program Interior Architecture and Furniture Design, at Art Department, or equivalent knowledge is required.

4. Grading scale:

The course uses the grading scale Fail (U) or Pass (G).

5. Forms of examination:

The examiner is responsible for providing the grading criteria for the examination, and for these to be published on the intranet.

Students who receive the grade Fail (underkänd) in an examination are entitled to take a further five tests as long as the course is given, in order to achieve the grade Pass (godkänd). Students who fail an examination twice by an examiner are entitled to request that another examiner is appointed to decide grades for the test. A request should be made to the Head of Department.

6. Reading list and other study material:

The reading list is presented as an appendix to the course syllabus.

7. Additional Information:

The department is responsible for other essential information, such as detailed teaching methods and grading criteria, to be available for students before the start of the course.

This course may not be credited towards a degree together with similar courses taken and passed, where the content is completely or partly the same as the content of this course.

Students can request that examinations according to this syllabus be carried out a maximum of two times during a two-year period after it ceases to be valid.

The course is part of the Master's program in Interior Architecture and Furniture Design.

The course is compulsory.

Teaching is mainly in Swedish, but teaching in English may occur.
