1. Main course content:

The course aims to provide students with knowledge and perspectives relating to design, practical and artistic research within the field of interior architecture and furniture design and their related areas.

2. Intended learning outcomes:

Upon completion of the course, students will be able to:

- demonstrate an understanding of various knowledge and perspectives relating to design practical and artistic research within the field of interior architecture and furniture design and their related areas;
- present and describe various forms of practical and artistic research relevant to interior architecture and furniture design;
- reflect upon their learning.

3. Entry requirements:

Basic eligibility. In order to start studies in year 2, in addition to the basic eligibility, a passing grade in courses corresponding to 45 credits from year 1 in the Bachelor's program Interior Architecture and Furniture Design, at Art Department, or equivalent knowledge is required.

4. Grading scale:

The course uses the grading scale Fail (U) or Pass (G).

5. Forms of examination:

The examiner is responsible for providing the grading criteria for the examination, and for these to be published on the intranet.

Students who receive the grade Fail (underkänd) in an examination are entitled to take a further five tests as long as the course is given, in order to achieve the grade Pass (godkänd). Students who fail an examination twice by an examiner are entitled to request that another examiner is appointed to decide grades for the test. A request should be made to the Head of Department.

6. Reading list and other study material:

The reading list is presented as an appendix to the course syllabus.

7. Additional Information:

The department is responsible for other essential information, such as detailed teaching methods and grading criteria, to be available for students before the start of the course.

This course may not be credited towards a degree together with similar courses taken and passed, where the content is completely or partly the same as the content of this course.

Students can request that examinations according to this syllabus be carried out a maximum of two times during a two-year period after it ceases to be valid.

The course is part of the Master's program in Interior Architecture and Furniture Design. The course is compulsory. Teaching is mainly in Swedish, but teaching in English may occur.
