Hotels and hostels in Stockholm

Konstfack is situated a few minutes walk from the subway station Telefonplan. It takes about 20 minutes to go by subway from the Central station to Telefonplan. Along the subway line 14 (with end station Fruängen) from the subway station T-centralen (connected to the Central station), there are plenty of hotels in nice areas.

The list below contains some suggestions of hotels and hostels in different areas along the subway line. The big island Södermalm constitutes the southern part of Stockholm inner city, and the area offers a variety of restaurants, shops, bars and cafés. The smaller and peaceful islands Långholmen and Reimersholme are connected to Södermalm and it takes about 15 minutes to reach the closest subway station Hornstull. If you prefer to stay close to the Central station in the inner city, there are plenty of options for hotels. We have listed three hotels with different character in the list below.

If you chose to stay at an Airbnb you can safely book a place in any district around Konstfack. The immediate surroundings are nice, as well as Hägerstensåsen south of Konstfack. There are also some very cosy and small town-like areas between Telefonplan and Liljeholmen, such as Midsommarkransen, Aspudden and also Gröndal. Gröndal is off the subway line, but there is a tram from Liljeholmen subway station, and also a bus (161) that goes between Telefonplan and Gröndal.
